Say Bonjour to a wonderful and hilarious Canadian folk hero! Ti-Jean is tall, Ti-Jean is handsome, Ti-Jean is popular, but Ti-Jean is not very smart. Join our hero as he battles unicorns, captures the moon, finds love and unwittingly thwarts all who would cheat and fool him. An uproarious show celebrating Canadian culture, Tales of Ti-Jean features riveting storytelling, hilarious physical comedy, puppetry, music, dance and lots of audience participation. This wonderful show reunites the creators of Rock 'N' Fables and The Holiday Dream, and is guaranteed to leave your sides aching with laughter.

Ti-Jean (Petit Jean) is the hero of many of the folktales of French Canada. The English version of Ti-Jean might be Jack, of Jack and the Beanstalk. Tales of Ti-Jean combines four stories found in French Canadian folklore. The play involves four performers working together to tell the stories of the all-Canadian folk hero. Through the use of puppetry, sound effects, music, dance, mime, comedy and drama, the audience is treated to the following tales: Ti-Jean and The Unicorn, Ti-Jean and The Golden Phoenix, Ti-Jean The Fiddler and Ti-Jean Brings Home The Moon.

It is important to note that while these stories are found in French Canadian folklore, they are not necessarily about French Canada. They are universal and fantastical stories about a young man and his adventures with kings, queens, unicorns, etc. From the opening song to the show-stopping Riverdance, Tales of Ti-Jean will delight audiences of all ages and cultures.

The Canadian content was very much appreciated.
The students loved the Ti-Jean stories.
